Cable Tv closer; board negotiates

The day that cable tv will be available to the residents of Antioch is moving closer.

The village board continued its negotiations with U.S. Cable TV of Lake County after the regular board meeting this week, in an effort to clarify and finalize the ordinance being drawn up on the franchise agreement between the Village of Antioch and the cable tv company.

Trustee Bill Seeman gave a list of, and led a discussion on, 12 items that he felt should be part of the franchise agreement.

These items included such things as a channel reserved for programming from the College of Lake County, channels reserved for local schools and the library, a fully equipped mobile van for local program use, an additional color tv camera to be kept at the Antioch Community High School and a locally based studio from which the cable tv company will operate.

Further discussion on the whys and wherefores of the possibility of increasing the amount of the three percent of the gross revenues to be received by the village ensued.

The representative of U.S. Cable TV of Lake County seemed to find no objections to any of the point brought up by the board.

The negotiations seem to be getting closer to finalization.

Chamber blasts Moonlight lights up on Christmas ideas

"Uneventful, unsuccessful, bad turnout, were the descriptions attributed to this year's Moonlight Madness sale by members of the Retail Committee of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry at their regular luncheon meeting.

The consensus of the members was that the poor turnout was mainly due to the lateness of the date the sale was held on and the state of the economy.

The fact that most of the kids were back in school and most people had already finished their back to school shopping were among the explanations.

Sandy Seigmeier of Four Squires said, "The strange thing about it is that Maxwell St. Days was a big success and usually the results of the Maxwell St. sale and Moonlight Madness are the same."

Chairman Laddie Korecek reported that although there were less cars raffled this year the income was slightly more.

After a discussion on the merits of going on with Moonlight Madness next year, the members present decided to continue the sale next year and appointed a committee to come up with ideas for stronger promotions to stimulate more interest in 1981.

Moving the sale up was on the must list of changes in the sale's future plans.

The committee then moved on to the Chamber promotions usually held during the days preceeding Thanksgiving and Christmas.

The members were almost unanimous in their vote to shelve the turkey promotion since many felt that the cost of the promotion last year did very little to stimulate added holiday business.

Suggestions for building up shopping traffic and the village Christmas spirit generated the most participation and enthusiasm.

Seigmeier asked if the cost of stringing lights on the trees planted in front of the stores was prohibitive and Chamber President Dan Dugenske said that this had been delved into at length in previous years and the chamber had decided that the cost was much too high.

Further discussion ended with the members in agreement that it might be possible to raise the cost of the lights and their operation by holding benefits over a two or three year timespan.

The liveliest discussion of the afternoon was begun by Bruce Jablonski's suggestion of kicking off the Christmas promotions by offering a free Christmas pageant production on successive Saturdays.

A committee was formed to formulate the idea and check with the various drama, school and church groups, asking for their help and participation in bringing the true spirit of Christmas, the spirit of Christ's coming back into the Christmas celebration.

Board sets double paving to settle Knolls dispute

In an effort to gain possible financial backing and moral support from other municipalities in their legal battle with Ernie Levas on the ordinance passed by the board prohibiting the sale of "drug paraphanelia" within the village limits, the board authorized Village Attorney Andrew Lynch to contact other municipalities and school districts to enlist their aid.

The village was victorious in the first hearing in a Lake County Court and the case is now on appeal awaiting oral arguments.

The board unanimously approved routine payments but ran into a no from Finance Chairman Don Amundsen when it came to agreeing to gravel and sealcoat property belonging to the Oakwood Knolls Assn.

This was in reference to the village's previous agreement to sealcoat village property in the area of the pier B boat docks in the subdivision, in an effort to alleviate parking and access problems.

At the present time the village has sealcoat the village property and had agreed to the request made in a letter to Mayor Haley to do the same in the area north from the parking lot to pier B. The existing barriers will also be removed.

Haley said, "Although this is not the perfect solution it seems to be one that most of the people in the area can live with."

Skidmore is contest winner!

This week's first prize winner in the Antioch News' Football Contest was right on the button.

Donald Skidmore of 490 First St., correctly predicted that Crystal Lake would beat the Sequoits by seven points.

The final score of the game was 14-7 in favor of Crystal Lake Central.

Skidmore wins a $15 savings account at the Antioch Savings and Loan.

The next closest guess had Crystal Lake ahead by 13 points. This was the guess that earned Winifred Braddock a $10 gift certificate at A&B Printing.

Just behind Braddock's guess was the prediction made by Dawn Quedenfeld that had the Sequoits down by 14. Quedenfeld wins a $5 gift certificate from Las Vegas Restaurant.

Those that lost this week should try for next week's prizes.

1980 Cancer Bike-A-Thon to be held on Sept. 28

Pres Reckers, Chairman of the American Cancer Society's Ninth Annual Antioch Bike-A-Thon, has announced that the 1980 event will be held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Sunday, Sept. 28.

Prizes to be awarded to top riders in the 1980 Bike-A-Thon include a ten-speed bike donated by the State Bank of Antioch, a three-speed bike donated by the Shoe Box, and a single-speed bike donated by Four Squires of Antioch.

ENTRY blanks are now available in area schools, at the Antioch Village Hall, State Bank of Antioch, The Shoe Box, and Four Squires.

The annual Bike-A-Thon event will be taking place on fourteen separate routes throughout Lake County.

The seven-mile Antioch route will start at the fire station and proceed west on Orchard St. to David St., then south to Lake St., west to Tiffany Rd., north to North Ave., south to Little Silver Lake Rd., and west to the fire station starting point.

PARTICIPANTS in the Bike-A-Thon may begin their ride only from the first checkpoint of the fire station, starting at 9 a.m.

Other checkpoints on the route are the Antioch Evangelical Free Church on Tiffany Rd. and the Atwood residence on Deep Lake Rd., south of North Ave.

Riders are encouraged to ride the seven mile Antioch route as many times as they are able, but no one can pass through checkpoint one at the fire station after 3 p.m.

ANYONE who wishes to participate should obtain as many sponsors as possible prior to the date of the ride. Parents, teachers, friends, relatives, neighbors, merchants and businesses are good sources. They can be asked to sponsor riders for each mile they ride.

Riders may carry a small passenger during the ride, and sponsors for the little one can also be obtained.

Antioch Grade School gets new grading system

The Antioch Grade School board has approved a change in the grading system for grades six through eight and a new math program for sixth grade to go into affect this year.

The new grading system will standardize the grading system for the entire school system and the new math program will allow more levels of competency than before, according to Supt. Donald Skidmore.

Previously students in the grades six through eight received a C, S or U grade for class work. Under the new system students will receive a more traditional A,B,C,D or E for class work. The new system will allow teachers to divide up the students achievements better and will give more meaning of a students achievements to parents and in the case of transfers from other schools, Skidmore said.

There was some confusion just how well a student was doing under the old system, Skidmore said. When a student received a C, which meant commendable, parents were wondering if that meant a commendable A or a commendable B, Skidmore said.

The new system was recommended by Skidmore to the board after a year of study was completed. The old system of C, S or U was adopted when the upper grade school was first opened.

"When the old system was approved it was felt that grades got in the way of learning and had no relevance," Skidmore said. "Since then we have learned that employers do care about how well a student does and that grades aren't meaningless in the real world."

The new math program the school board approved will allow students to study math at four different levels of difficulty. The new program will allow the more advanced students to study at a higher and more accelerated level and will allow the slower learners to go at their own rate, Skidmore said.

The first crossword puzzle appeared in the New York World in 1913.

When I think about it

Computers, machines not Gloria's cup of tea

Well he's here folks. The dreaded one eyed monster has arrived. He sits there, to the right of my desk, his large square, one eye and alphabetic smile leering at me ominously.

Yes, the computerized terminal that they expect me to use instead of my trusty old typewriter when I record the news is finally here.

Now I know that this is the machine age—the day of the computer, and I've always considered myself a "with it person," but this is too much.

I'm too old for the uncertainty of a computer and I'm from the "what you see is what you get" generation, a strong advocate of "seeing is believing," so when the nice computer lady warned me that the information typed onto the screen and the resulting news copy might bear no resemblance to each other if my feeble memory causes me to forget to push just one certain key, my confidence was completely shattered.

Besides the grey monster definitely lacks the warmth and friendliness exuded by my trusty old Remington.

I'm also possibly the most unmechanical minded person in existence and after many years of marriage I still don't trust any of my appliances to operate correctly unless I'm there to supervise them.

For instance, I have a fantastic automatic timer on my oven that is still brand new and unused after owning the stove 10 years.

I just don't like things working when I'm not around. Maybe it's the fear of arriving home to either a completely raw dinner or one that is burnt to a crisp because of mechanical failure that causes me to steer clear of it.

I also won't run my dryer or dishwasher unless I'm right there to to dowse a possible burning wardrobe or to retrieve what's left of my china if the dishwasher decides to play its crunches.

And now I'm faced with menacing Tom, I've decided to call my terminal Thomas because of the strong doubt I hold in my heart concerning him.

Do you suppose that computers are like plants and will respond to soft music and a little kindness?

If so, maybe I'll hum a few bars of "I Love You Truly" or sing the words to "A Pretty Computer Is Like A Melody" as I set my copy.

Then maybe Tom and I will grow on each other. I call him Thomas since I really have my doubts about him.

Anyway, because of innate sense of success and persevering strong will, plus the fact that I'll probably get fired if I don't, I know I will eventually win in the war of man verses machine.

But just in case you pick up the paper some week and find that "No news is good news," is the only copy on each page, you'll

A woman's place

know that Tom has beaten me, but there's always next time other. I call him Thomas since I really have my doubts about him.

If so, maybe I'll hum a few bars of "I Love You Truly" or sing the words to "A Pretty Computer Is Like A Melody" as I set my copy.

Then maybe Tom and I will grow on each

Anyway, because of innate sense of success and persevering strong will, plus the fact that I'll probably get fired if I don't, I know I will eventually win in the war of man verses machine.

EMMANUELLE HUMBERT

French exchange student is typical mademoiselle

If the Antioch Rotary Club had made a special request that their exchange student from France look and speak exactly as the picture of the typical French mademoiselle most Americans carry, they couldn't have done much better than Emmanuelle Humbert.

Emmanuelle is 18 and comes to Antioch from Comps, a small village near Bordeaux, France.

Her father, Andrea is deceased and her mother, France, owns and operates the Chateau Colbert Winery.

Emmanuelle who has graduated from high school in France, will spend a year at ACHS before returning to France to pursue a career in business management by attending university schooling.

Under the International Rotary plan, Emmanuelle will live with three different Antioch families during her stay.

She is now visiting the Vern Thelen family and the Paddocks and Ipsens will be next on her adoptive family list.

"Illinois is not much different from my country as far as the way the countryside looks," says Emmanuelle.

But she does find the kids a little different saying, "They look and act older than the French teenagers, but seem much happier than their European counterparts."

One of the biggest surprises that greeted her on her arrival in this country was that she expected to find more young people doing their own thing without family or authoritative ties.

She says most of the American tv shows and movies make one think that all young Americans are on their own doing "their own thing."

Emmanuelle also finds that our roads are not as filled with bikes and motorcycles as the French roads are.

"Americans eat differently than we do," she says, explaining that the French eat one thing at a time, unlike Americans that seem to eat a little bit of everything at one sitting.

She also says that we snack a lot more a much more often.

The most surprising thing to me was to hear English a lot more affluent than one would expect from this fragile French porcelain doll-like creature who has been here less than a month.

Lions help with candy

Candy Day is good business, it helps the blind, visually handicapped, deaf, and hearing impaired.

Some of these people may not have been able to work before they received help, but became happily employed people afterwards.

For others, Candy Day might mean medical help, a glaucoma screening to prevent blindness, or personal growth through summer camp.

For the people of Antioch, Candy Day is an opportunity to participate in a worthwhile effort of the Lions of Illinois who have set a goal to raise $1,250,000 on Friday, October 10, to aid handicapped people.

Realizing that this year has not been a very prosperous one; the Lions of Antioch are still going to ask for help to defray the cost of the candy which they will be giving away this year.

The cost of a case of the candy is $28.80 and every case that is paid for means that much more money that can go in direct services to the blind, visually handicapped, deaf and hearing impaired.

The Antioch Lions Club thanks past participants for their help and looks forward to their continued support.

Checks should be made payable to the "Antioch Lions Club — Blind Activities Fund", mail to Paul B. Maginot, c/o Barr Funeral Home, 532 Lake St., Antioch.

A French restaurant in 1867 advertised "Real Live Turtle Soup."

Women plan lunch

The Antioch Woman's Club opening luncheon and guest day, Oct. 6 is fast approaching.

Louise Santino is starting her second year as it's president with the realization of responsibility is just as strong today as it was the first year.

It has given me much satisfaction to see the many things that we have accomplished during my first year in office and it is my prayer that all our many projects meets with constructive and successful results.

Acceptance of responsibilities in the year to come can only lead to better and more exciting community service work. I ask for your help and co-operation in this work and I know working together all these things will get accomplished.

I leave you with these few words: Don't walk in front of me, I may not follow — Don't walk behind me, I may not lead — Walk beside me, and just be my friend.

County tests set

The Lake County Health Dept. announces that children will be able to have their hearing and vision checked at the following combined immunization/hearing and vision screening session, which will be held from 9 to 11:30 a.m. in Antioch, on Wednesday, Sept. 17, St. Peter's Church Hall, 557 Lake St.

Early identification of possible hearing and vision problems may prevent medical and/or learning disabilities.

Children with possible hearing and vision problems will be referred to appropriate resources so that corrective measures may be prescribed.

He had just cranked a Ford car belonging to Tony Walski and as he stepped around to the side of the car he was struck by a car driven by George Malek, sustaining several fractures of the bones of his legs. Intense fog made vision extremely difficult, and the accident was unavoidable. Malek brought the injured man to the office of Dr. Beebe for first aid and he was later removed to the hospital so x-ray pictures could be made.

A Better Way To Clean Teeth

Dental plaque is a sticky, invisible film that contains bacteria and is the major cause of tooth decay and periodontal (gum) disease. The trouble with removing plaque from teeth is that you can't see it easily with the naked eye. But there is a way to make the "invisible" show up. Chew a disclosing tablet before brushing your teeth and it will leave a red stain where the plaque is on your teeth. Remove all the red stain and you'll remove the plaque. Here's a five step procedure to use before going to bed each night if you want healthy teeth.

1. Make the plaque visible by chewing a disclosing tablet.
2. Brush your teeth using a dry, soft bristle brush without toothpaste. Place the bristles at a 45 degree angle pointing toward the gum. Move the brush back and forth with short strokes. Clean chewing surfaces with short, scrubbing strokes.

3. Use unwaxed dental floss to clean between the teeth and under the gum edges.

4. Rinse and examine the teeth for any remaining red areas.

5. Brush again using toothpaste, concentrating on the areas that still contain plaque. For best results, don't eat again before going to bed.

IMPORTANT SAFETY WARNING to owners of older John Deere Lawn and Garden Tractors

Maintaining the safety equipment on your older John Deere Lawn and Garden Tractor can be especially important. The original boot (or cover) for the battery's positive post on Model 60, 70, 100, 110, 112, 120 or 140 Tractors manufactured from 1963 through 1974 may have suffered from age or may have been lost or damaged. And if that positive battery post is not properly covered, there is danger of a spark causing a fire and bodily injury if you accidentally touch a metal gas can to the positive battery post when refueling the tractor. A more serious fire can result if you are not using a safety-approved gas can.

If you own one of the above models, John Deere wants to make absolutely certain that your tractor has the battery's positive post properly isolated. To make it easy—and safer—for you, we will send you a new cover, free. Just fill out the coupon provided below and mail it to the address shown. It comes complete with installation instructions and is not difficult to install. But if you prefer, after you have received your kit, make a date with your John Deere Lawn and Garden Tractor dealer and he'll install it for a small service charge.

Remember, safety and maintenance go hand in hand. The operator's manual can help you. Read it again. Keep your tractor as safe as it was when it was delivered.

It could be the most important thing you do today.

THE Entertainer

Welders' 'Our Town' to open PM&L's 20th show season

It will not be long before "Our Town," Thornton Wilder's Pulitzer Prize-winning play, opens at the PM&L Theater, 877 Main Street in Antioch.

THE FIRST performance is scheduled for Saturday night, Sept. 20.

Subsequent evening presentations are set for Friday and Saturday nights, Sept. 26 and 27, and October 3 and 4.

Also, there will be a matinee on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 28.

Curtain time for the five evening performances will be 8:30 p.m. and, for the Sunday matinee, 2:30 p.m.

A number of factors combine to make the PM&L production of "Our Town" an outstanding event.

For one thing, the show marks the opening of the 20th year for PM&L. That alone is a noteworthy achievement for any community theater group.

ANOTHER point is that "Our Town" is, of course, a classic of the American theater, well established as one of the greatest plays ever written in this country.

A New York reviewer has called it "a beautifully evocative play," noting that "Mr.

Wilder has transmuted the simple events of a human life into universal reverie.

He has given it a profound, strange, unwordly significance brimming over with compassion."

THE PM&L production is directed by Tom Hausman. The cast includes, in the principal roles, Don Beveroth, Paddock Lake, as the stage manager; Anthony Starke, Lindenhurst, as George Gibbs; Jeannie Lindgren, Antioch, Emily Webb; Frank Greenwood, Round Lake, Dr. Gibbs; Mickey Mandel, Fox Lake, Mrs. Gibbs; Yvonne Dyer, Antioch, Mrs. Webb; Lou Jones, Round Lake Beach, as Simon Stimson.

These leading performers are supported by a large and talented cast. Many of the players are already well-known to Antioch theatergoers.

Inaugurating PM&L 20th seasons, "Our Town" is a sure winner, expected to play to full houses.

It is therefore not too early to make your reservations, and to be at the PM&L Theater no later than 8:15 p.m. on the night, or 2:15 p.m. on the afternoon that you expect to see this remarkably gripping play.

In 1979, Brigham Young University paleontologist James A. Jensen unearthed the 9-foot shoulder blade of what might be the largest dinosaur ever. Dubbed "Ultrasaurus," the beast, if alive today, could easily look into the top-floor window of a 5-story building.

Frederick the Great of Prussia often had his coffee made with champagne instead of water.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Laddie Korecek tells me that the ever so tall person I saw standing in his office the other day was Tom Boerwinkle of past Chicago Bulls fame.

At the same time he informed me that he and his wife were expecting a blessed event. That's right they're going to adopt a collie puppy to keep the one they've got company.

Tammy Marie Lair has asked me to explain that her entry in the Miss Teen All American Contest was sponsored by the Haley Bros. from Blarney Island and no one else.

Mayor Haley tells me that the Senior Citizen Center is almost ready to open.

I can't wait to attend all those functions sponsored by AARP, Catholic Charities, Chain O'Lakes Senior Services and all the other senior citizen clubs that intend making good use out of the village's new center.

I wish I could take advantage of those delicious meals served at the Food, Fun and Friendship functions but I'm already bursting out of my winter wardrobe.

Isn't it a shame that when we're finally old enough to have time to eat all those goodies, they either don't agree with us or just looking at them packs on tons that we're to old to lug around.

I hear that one of the hardest working students on the campus of the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater is Mark Jones, because of his many contributions to the Warhawk Marching Band.

Speaking of special students, Phyllis Zora has made the Dean's List at Barat College.

Dixie Sparks of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry has asked me to tell everyone that soon they'll be new maps available and the chamber needs advertisements from the local merchants to help finance their print.

Congratulations to Gary Quedenfeld whose picture of antelopes done in barnsiding and leather took a superior in leathercraft at the Illinois State Fair.

Happy birthday to Bill Brook who celebrated his 65th last week. They surprised him at the State Bank by faking an officer's meeting which resulted in gift giving and a picnic in the parking lot that was enjoyed by all.

Congrats to the Moose baseball team, looks as though they're heading for the number one spot.

There are builders and there are builders. The builders in this ad are the crème de la crème. They're the ones who can make you look like the smartest guy on the block because they can put you in the smartest house on the block. The energy-smart house.

The energy-smart house has double-glazed windows. The layer of air trapped between them will help you keep comfortable when cold winds blow or sidewalks sizzle.

The ceilings and walls are packed with insulation to help you stay warm when you should be warm and cool when you should be cool.

There's caulking and weather-stripping around every door and window so you won't waste money heating and cooling the great outdoors. Instead of an air conditioner and furnace, there's an electric heat pump. In summer, it pulls heat from the warm air inside and forces it outside to keep you cool. In winter, it reverses itself, drawing residual heat from the cold air outside and pumping it inside to keep you warm.

Happy too, because all winter long this amazing little machine actually provides at least fifty percent more energy than it uses. And nobody has to tell you what that means.

All in all, a house that's energy-smart costs less to operate than one that's not so smart. And since the price of energy isn't going down for any of us, it'll be worth that much more should you ever decide to move on.

If you're in the market for a new home, talk to one of the energy-smart builders. It could be the most smart thing you ever did.

Sequoits play at home, out to beat Woodstock

Antioch's varsity football team showed that it does not make any difference what you did last season, it's a new year and you must prove yourself each and every game.

The Sequoits failed to show the kind of play which took them to the state quarterfinals last season as they dropped a 14-7 decision at Crystal Lake Central on Sept. 5.

Things do not get any easier for the Sequoits as they host always tough Woodstock in the Antioch home opener at 2 p.m., Saturday, Sept. 13.

"IT'S NOT GOING to be a picnic," said head coach Steve Wapon about the game with the Blue Streaks.

"We have not had a history of starting out strong," Wapon explained the loss to Crystal Lake. "but we're going to try to change that."

Antioch lost both its non-conference game to kickoff last season prior to going on to a co-championship with Warren in the Northwest Suburban Conference and then on to the final four in the state playoffs.

"We were out of position an awful lot," he said of his team's defensive game with the Tigers. "Besides that, we were rather inconsistent offensively. We gave up a lot of yardage on defense."

"WOODSTOCK WILL BE the same old Woodstock," he anticipated. "They're well coached."

"They'll run the eye, play action, a good power game and sweep," he said of their offensive attack. "It'll be a tough game, the kind we need to get ready for the conference (Northwest Suburban)."

"We have to keep the ball away from them," he said in reference to his team's basic game plan for each game. "We have to go back to running our offense like we know we can. It's a control-type offense."

Bob Heffernan, a 5-10, 155 pound senior, worked well in his first start at quarterback, according to Wapon.

"We had a number of people who did good things," Wapon explained. "Just not enough of them as a team."

WAPON CITED the offensive line play of John Eckert for blocking well and Gene Haviland's good game at defensive safety, as being highlights for Antioch.

"I didn't think we performed well as a team," he said of the Crystal Lake contest. "We were outthrusted, outhit and outenthused."

"Crystal Lake played a fine game," he said.

"Now it's up to us to get things together and come back," he explained. "If we can correct those things in which we were outdone, which are correctable, we should be alright."

"WE MADE SEVERAL offensive mistakes," he continued. "Basically, we were getting whipped at the line of scrimmage."

"Defensively," he observed, "we made key position mistakes."

The Sequoits were firing off the ball well and getting across the line of scrimmage first, however, misdirection plays were hurting them. That is one area which Wapon plans on doing some work.

Crystal Lake took and early 7-0 lead in the first quarter with 8:48 remaining on a 29-yard run.

THE TWO TEAMS went back and forth throughout most of the first half until the final minute and one-half when Crystal Lake began picking the Sequoit secondary apart.

Before they knew it, Antioch had the Tigers knocking at their door with a second and goal on the Sequoit one-yard line.

Antioch's Ted Bessette recovered a Tiger fumble with three seconds remaining on the clock to end the Crystal Lake threat.

A Crystal Lake fumble on their first possession of the second half was recovered by Antioch's Tom Haviland on the Tiger 14 yard line.

ON FOURTH DOWN and goal from the one-yard line, John Haling plunged in off tackle for the Antioch touchdown.

Dino Sisto kicked the extra point to tie the game at 7-7.

Antioch began a drive following Scott Wolf's recovering of a fumble on Crystal Lake's 49, however, a fumble of their own which was recovered by a Tiger quickly halted the threat which could have put them ahead.

With 6:40 remaining, Crystal Lake began its drive which culminated in the winning touchdown with 1:40 left on the clock.

Sophs Win

The Antioch High School sophomore football team emptied the bench of all 36 players in their 21-0 win over Crystal Lake. The Sequoits scored a touchdown in each of the first three quarters and emptied the bench when victory was certain in the fourth quarter.

The Sequoits took charge of the game on their first possession of the football. The Sequoits gained possession of the ball on their 33 yard line and took the ball across the field for a touchdown in the first drive. The drive ended with a one yard plunge by halfback Tom Anderson for six points and Derek Olsen then made good the first of three extra point kicks he scored in the game.

Sequit quarterback, Tom Adams, showed his passing abilities by throwing two touchdown passes. Adams connected with Craig Sheelo on a nine yard touchdown pass in the second quarter. Adams choose Ed Gron as his receiver for an 18 yard touchdown pass in the third quarter.

Though his statistics don't show it, Adams proved himself to be a very steady quarterback, said Sophomore Head Coach Tom Baba. Adams completed three of nine passes. Two of the three completed where for touchdowns.

The Sequoits' other offensive stars in the win were Anderson who gained 104 yards in 16 carries for an 6.5 yard per carry average and John Silianoff who carried eight times for a total of 38 yards and a 4.7 yards per carry.

LEGAL— NATIONAL FLOOD INSURANCE PROGRAM Proposed Flood Elevation Determinations

AGENCY: Federal Insurance Administration, FEMA.
ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY:

Technical information or comments are solicited on the proposed base (100-year) flood elevations listed below for selected locations in the nation. These base (100-year) flood elevations are the basis for the flood plain management measures that the community is required to either adopt or show evidence of being already in effect in order to qualify or remain qualified for participation in the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP).

DATES:

The period for comment will be ninety (90) days following the second publication of this proposed rule in a newspaper of local circulation in each community.

ADDRESSES:

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mr. Robert G. Chappell
National Flood Insurance Program

(In Alaska and Hawaii call Toll Free Line (800) 424-9080)
Federal Emergency Management Agency
Washington, D.C. 20472.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

The Federal Insurance Administrator gives notice of the proposed determinations of base (100-year) flood elevations for selected locations in the nation, in accordance with section 110 of the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973 (Pub. L. 93-234), 87 Stat. 980, which added section 1363 to the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968 (Title XIII of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 (Pub. L. 90-448), 42 U.S.C. 4001-4128, and 44 CFR Part 67.4 (a).

These elevations, together with the flood plain management measures required by section 60.3 of the program regulations, are the minimum that are required. They should not be construed to mean the community must change any existing ordinances that are more stringent in their flood plain management requirements. The community may at any time enact stricter requirements on its own, or pursuant to policies established by other Federal, State or Regional entities. These proposed elevations will also be used to calculate the appropriate flood insurance premium rates for new buildings and their contents and for the second layer of insurance on existing buildings and their contents.
